

Business Developers From 37 Countries Will Convene in Malta

Dielheim/Heidelberg (Germany) 13 February 2010: More than 200 pharma and biopharma business development executives are registered for euroPLX 42 Valletta, which will be held on 1 and 2 March 2010 at the Hilton Portomaso, Malta.

The delegates come from 37 countries, four continents, and will discuss business opportunities for two days in highly organised face-to-face meetings. The main interest is in approved drugs for hospitals and practitioners, but more than one-third are interested in phase III developments, and another 30% in phase I/II and preclinical candidates.

euroPLX 42 Valletta is now closed for registration, but the forthcoming euroPLX 43 Berlin (Germany, June 14 + 15, 2010) and euroPLX 44 Barcelona (Spain, November 8 + 9, 2010) are now accepting registrations and filling rapidly.
